Introduction

Most men confuse “Affection”... with... “Attraction”.

Affection is something you must EARN. You earn affection by buying her gifts, taking her on dates, being nice to her, complimenting her and the likes.

The big problem is that the “affection” route hardly ever works (especially on beautiful women) because you’re doing what everyone else is doing. And you’ll be competing with billions of losers, following the same route.

For you to win, you have to buy the most expensive gift, spend the most money and time. And it’s not still guaranteed.

You end up wasting your time, money and energy with nothing to show for it. At best, all you get is pity fucks.

However, on the other hand, If you work the ATTRACTION model... you’ll get more beautiful women to fall on your lap than you can handle.

You see, if you’re following the attraction model, you come across as RARE to a woman. And just like a rare gemstone, rare cars and so on, she will chase after you and can do anything to have and keep you.

What makes the attraction model much more powerful is because attraction is an automatic response. It is not a choice.

That is, the woman has no choice but to be attracted to you if you possess some certain attractive traits and characteristics.

Now, that begs the question:

How do you get “attraction” to work for you? How do you switch to the attraction model?

Simple, I have listed some powerful attraction rules on the next page.

Some of the rules might sound strange. Some might make sense, some might not.

Just put them to use and see for yourself how women will gravitationally pull towards you as painlessly and fast as possible.

What are you still waiting for dummy, turn to the next page already!

Golden Rules Of Building And Keeping Attraction

1. Be On A Mission

Contrary to what women say or what you see in romantic movies, women do NOT want to be “The One” or the centre of a man’s existence.

She doesn't want to be your “everything”.

A woman hates it when you give your whole life in devotion to her.

A woman runs when she thinks you’re interested in her too much. On the contrary, a woman loves a man that is busy.

And for you to be a genuinely busy man, you MUST have a mission. You must be interested in something else besides her.

Make your mission your priority, never a (your) woman.

You see, a woman wants to subordinate themselves to a worthy man’s mission, to help him achieve that mission with their feminine support, and to follow the path he lays out.

I cannot overemphasize you have a mission. The mission you choose to pursue is entirely up to you.

- It can be financial (e.g Being a Billionaire)
- It can be being an expert (e.g, number one stock trader, best selling author, speaker..etc)
- It can be spiritual (e.g Raising a church or building the largest foundation...etc)
- It can be a Skill/ professional career (The greatest rapper/musician, actor, best basketball player, number 1 chess player..etc)

It can be anything. Something.

If you take nothing else from this book, please take this one advice:

If you don't have a mission you're working on, get one right now.
Don't procrastinate on this. Don't push it to later.

You see, a man on a mission not only gets all the beautiful honeys but gets the respect of family, friends and enemies alike. And money and power are also included in the package.

One final word of advice. Once you pick your clearly defined mission, you must be ruthless in your pursuit of it.

You must protect and nurture it.

It must be your priority before friends, women, men and even most family members.

Your mission should be the first thing you attend to when you wake up in the morning and the last thing before you go to bed at night.

Is it going to be easy? NO!

Is it going to be well worth it at the end? Hell YES!

Enough Sermon! Let's move on to the next point.

2. Have Irrationally High Self Confident & Self Esteem

High self-confident & self-esteem are the most important quality a man MUST have if he wants to approach truly desirable women... and... have any chance of success!

A Women can overlook everything else except these.

You have to be irrationally self-confident. You have to do things without apologies or excuses.

No woman wants a man who feels unsure of himself. It does not matter if objectively you are not the best man a woman can get; what matters is that you think and act like you are.

A man with confidence and truly high self-esteem would never consider the fact he might be unattractive to even the most beautiful woman in the world.

If he does approach the most beautiful woman in the world and she rejects him, he will walk away wondering, "I wonder if she's on her period?" Or he'll say something to himself like, "She must be having a really bad day."

Make no mistake, being Irrational self-confidence and having a high self-esteem does not make or mean you're arrogant. No. It means you're sure of your inner worth and that you're good enough for anybody and anything.

If you have Irrational self-confidence and have high self-esteem, you'll always get more beautiful pussy than you can handle.

3. Ignore Her Beauty

Train your mind to ignore her outward beauty.

Anytime you see a beautiful or sexy girl, say to yourself "she's interesting" or "she might be worth getting to know".

Instead of thinking she's hot, cute, gorgeous, beautiful, sexy..or whatever your crazy mind thinks. Because if you think in this manner, you're bound to misbehave, miss-talk and lose your confidence.

Just have the mindset of seeing a beautiful or sexy girl as a regular girl you're trying to know if she's worth your time. Or better, if she meets your standards.

And demonstrate to her you are interested in her as a person... and... convince her of this... before... making any kind of sexual move whatsoever.

Never compliment a girl on her looks, especially a good-looking girl and a girl you aren't fucking.

I repeat...

NEVER tell good-looking women (or girls you aren't fucking) how hot..or.. how sexy... or... how beautiful...or... how pretty they are. No. It will NOT make her feel "attracted" to you.

She's heard it a million times already. It's boring.

If you must compliment her, it should be on something unique, which she probably hasn't heard before.

Finally, meet, hang out and fuck more beautiful women. This will help you get used to being around attractive women. Beauty won't be a big deal anymore and you will not be intimidated by it.

4. Listen More, Talk Less

When you're having a conversation with Her or anyone for that matter, the subject matter should be mostly about them.

People love to talk about themselves for days. It turns them on. It never gets boring. It never gets old.

The word “YOU” is one of the most powerful words. Phrases like “Let’s talk about you” “Let’s look at things from your point of view” are very powerful.

Note: This "trick" has been used for centuries by the most daring and successful men in the world.

I urge you to get the book: “How To Win Friends And Influence People.” by Dale Carnegie.

This book goes into more details and also covers other powerful seductive and Influential behaviours. Get it. Read it. Enjoy it.

Lastly, I want to give some "target words" that you can sprinkle into your conversation that would ignite her passion for you.

Here they are:

"Destiny": Most times, women will put forth more effort into the relationship if they believe it’s “destiny”. She doesn't want to go against destiny instead help it. So don’t be scared of including this word in your discussion with your lover, or potential lover.

"Magical": Many people still believe in fairy tales. To them, relationships all seems like magic. So, it’s a word you’ll want to use.

"You please me": I love this one. Why I love this phrase is because it’s both a statement and a hidden command.

When you say “you please me” you are stating a fact. But, if you put a small pause between the “you” and the “please me” her mind hears it as a command. And we tend to do what we are told if it’s not too inconvenient.

This little phrase goes a long way to helping you get what you want.

"Adore": Sometimes you can get more mileage out of the relationship if you say, "I adore you" rather than if you say, "I love you." Why? Because one phrase is overused. The other stimulates the brain in a good way. Use this word.

5. Say "NO" To Her

If you want to go far with women, as far as the best room, then you have to kill the inner "nice guy" that always want to say YES!

You have to start saying NO! More often.

You see, women (secretly) love when you say NO to them. You subconsciously come off as Man who is challenging, in control and confident.

On the other end, if you're a 'yes man' and say YES to every of her request, she'll find you boring and lose respect for you and not know why. Soon she'll start saying NO to you, especially in the Bedroom.

Now, there is a way to give her what she wants while saying "NO". If she says, "Let's sit here," you can say, "No, let's sit over there". If she says, "Let's go to the 5 o'clock movie," you can say, "No, let's go to the 8 o'clock movie."

You get the idea.

6. Be Chivalrous

The simplest way to show a woman you're protective, caring and a gentleman is by doing things like walking on the outside of the sidewalk, opening the doors for her, pulling out chairs for her and so on. Women love it when you do these kinds of things.

It's really that simple.

7. Tease! Tease!! Tease!!!

Women are dying to be teased (especially good looking women).

Women love to be teased. They love to be teased in almost every kind of way. She needs to be teased about the things she says... how she drives... the shoes she wears. Tease her as if you're her big brother and nothing you say can make her runaway.

You see, women love to be teased so much so, they are master teasers themselves

Women tease by the way they dress. Women tease with their eyes. and most of all, women tease with mixed messages. That's why most men find it difficult figuring out women. You don't know if she's saying yes..or..no, go..or.. come.

So to please them, tease them. You have to beat them at their own game.

When you make fun of a woman in a playful way, her mind gets really excited at the double message, at the confusing, at the reason WHY you said that.

You may sprinkle unique compliments into the conversation here and there. But by and large mostly tease them.

8. Kill All Neediness

A needy man is one who needs a woman, sex, a job, a favour, anything or someone's attention by all means.

Nobody wants to be around a needy man. Heck, even needy people don't want to be around needy people.

And people can sense neediness from a mile away. Neediness shows from what you say, to the way you sound, down to your body language.

This quote from Tao of Dirt blog put it nicely:

“What are the qualities of the needy man? The look on his face says it all, the way his head constantly darts around, always looking for something. Something that's lacking, something that's missing.”

Here are few other signs that show you're needy and need fixing:

- You argue a lot
- You beg (or ask) people to hang-out with you instead of inviting them
- You try too hard to convince people to do what you want
- Scared of people not liking you
- You take it personal when someone tells you No
- You have a problem saying NO to people
- Always apologising

- Constantly checking your phone when waiting for a reply.
- You give someone more than two missed calls.
- Etc

If you're guilty of any of the above act, then you're a needy man. Cheer up. It happens to the best of us. The good thing is that you now know. So it's time to kill all neediness from henceforth.

Listen, the root cause of all neediness, pedestalization, social anxiety, unworthiness, and lack of confidence is not having a mission

It all goes back to having a mission, which was discussed earlier. That's where you should start.

Also, to kill all neediness you need to be military. What do I mean by that?

It means your life should be a dictatorship and not a democracy. Other people's vote doesn't count.

Finally, I need to stress this point. Do NOT ask people (women especially) to hangout with you. Rather invite them to join you where you're planning on going already (and not care if they come or not)

Let me give you examples to make this clear as day:

For example, I'll call a girl and say:

"Hey, I'm going to watch a movie at 7pm, come along with me"

"I feel like eating at KFC, I'll be going there by 4 pm, tag along with me"

“My friends and I usually go swimming on Saturdays, join us this Saturday”

From each of the example above, you can see I have shown no sign of neediness. Whether she’s there or not, does not make any difference. I don’t need her there. I’m going to the place and going to have a good time anyways.

Lastly, it’s always a good Idea to have options. Because a man with options is a man without needs.

9. Let Her Chase You.

Women love to chase. Yes, you read that right. Women love to chase a man. Let her chase you.

They are suspicious if you “chase” them. If you show too much interest in them too soon, they will run. The reason for this is; by and large, women have low self-esteem. They know inside they are a mess. Insecure. Etc. So if you show interest in them without them “earning it”, they suspect you have an agenda.

You see, if you’re doing the chasing, she’ll have nothing invested in it and you’ll have the most to lose.

If you’re working on making the relationship better, she will not value the relationship because she is doing nothing to make it happen. Let her chase you. This way, she values it more. She feels she has earned it.

No matter how much you care, let her believe she cares more. She will more likely feel desire for you if you feel less desire for her.

Now, to make sure she's always doing the chasing, you should stick to the golden ratio of $\frac{2}{3}$. What does that mean? It's baby simple.

For 3 everything she does or gives you, you give 2 (or 1) back.

Example:

For every 3 calls or text, give her 2 back.

She gives you 3 gift, she gets two outings in return

Give her two displays of affection and pause until she has responded with three more.

And so on.

You see, by giving back less, and not equal of everything she does for you, you are silently communicating you're higher status and in control. And deep down, that's exactly what a woman truly craves.

10. Be In A Leadership Position Or An Expert Of Some Sort

It is no secret that women admire and love a man in some kind of a leadership position.

It doesn't matter if you're head of the choir, the boss at work or head of a boy scout troop. It doesn't almost matter what kind of position as long as it's some sort of leadership position.

Also, women will find you attractive if you're an expert in anything. Be it cards, chess, classical music, stock trading... and just about anything you can think of.

It turns her on to see other people like, trust and respect you for something.

10. Be Patience

Please never confuse patience for doing nothing. NEVER. Patient means your doing things at the perfect timing and pace.

Patience is the opposite of rushing (dulling). I don't think I'm explaining it properly.

A.B Dada puts it best:

“When asked what is the sexiest part of a man, my answer has never wavered: Patience. Patience is erotic, impatience is childish. A man who can wait to make a decision until it's best for him is a man a woman can trust to lead. A man who hurries things is a man who is uncertain about his future options: he wants to spend his little power now in case he loses the chance. Not looks, not height, not fitness, not intelligence, not wealth, not clothes, not humour. Patience.”

Bingo!

Patience is really a virtue.

Let me give you some example situation of how patience can come into play when it comes to picking up chicks:

- When you're going to approach a woman, make eye contact, and patiently walk towards while still maintaining eye contact.
- When you're talking to a woman, patiently pause for a couple of seconds before continuing from time to time.
- When you're having a conversation, and there's that awkward silence, you patiently wait till she says something first before you say anything. Don't ask why just do it.
- Instead of going straight for the "triangle area" (The two breasts and the pussy.), patiently kiss her and touch other parts of her body first.

And so on.

Mind you, patience is not ONLY important for picking up chicks. It's more important in your life, achieving your mission, work, business and just about everything.

So, always exercise your patients. Strengthen it. Build it. Always be the most patient man in the room.

11. Escalate! Escalate!! Escalate!!!

A big mistake guys make is they never escalate things or escalate too late. So they fall into the dreaded friend zone.

You see, touching a woman inappropriately on the first date will get you further with her than not touching her at all.

I'm not saying you should be an asshole or be all over her too soon. But you have to be bold and touch her soon enough. Tickle her. Hold her. Tease her sexually. Let there be sexual tension in the air.

It is always better to be too bold than to be too polite. A woman secretly admires a man who makes his sexual intentions known.

And when things are going well you go for the kiss. From kiss, you go for sex.

Always be moving forward! Always be escalating!

Note: When escalating, always try to take two steps forward, and one step. You might kiss her today, tomorrow you might not even touch her. That's patience and unpredictability at it's finest.

12. Always Be In Control

Never ever allow a woman to make the decisions or the rules. That's your job. You have to be decisive.

Don't ask a woman questions like: "where are we going"... "What are we doing"... "what do you want to do"...and so on.

You should always make the decisions. If she has a problem with your decision she'll let you know, and you can adjust if need be.

When you let a woman do your job and make the decisions or rules, she will hate, despise and be disgusted by you and not know why.

You see, even the toughest, most independent, and hardcore feminist want to submit to and be led by a more powerful man.

Every woman loves a decisive man. It's an attractive leadership quality. You should pick what you guys are going to do, where you going, when and can go as far as telling her what to wear.

Lastly, always be in control. Don't be manipulated by crying, yelling, lying, games, sexual withdrawal, jealousy ploys, pity plays, shit tests, mood swings, disappearing acts, or guilt trips.

Be unmovable and unshakable.

13. Never Be Afraid To Lose Her

Whoever cares the least controls the relationship. You should never be afraid to lose her.

Once you fear to lose her, then you're in bondage. She can smell that fear from a mile away. If you put someone on a pedestal they have no choice but to look down on you.

Don't put her on a pedestal. Don't kiss her ass. Don't be afraid to lose her. You should walk away from her when she breaks your rules and integrity. And you should let her walk away if her heart is not with you.

Don't give up your power or controls to her. Because, as they say, She who can destroy you, controls you.

14. Keep Her Guessing And Surprise Her

When things get predictable, they get boring. Keep a woman guessing.

Tease her, don't always give direct answers to all of her questions and so on. She blossoms when she has to imagine what you're thinking about her, but withers when she knows exactly how you feel.

Although a woman may want financial and family security. But not romantic and passion security.

When she displeases you, be quick to punish. But when she acts right, reward her slowly and unpredictably. Keep this up and she would never get tired of working hard to please you.

If you're not a spontaneous kind of guy, get yourself a 12-sided die. Roll the dices and whatever number shows up would be the next day you do something surprisingly romantic for her as the reward for her good behaviour.

15. Make Her Jealous

No girl wants a man that no other woman wants. That's why the popular boys always get all the girls because every girl wants them.

Flirt with other women in front of her. Do not discourage other women from flirting with you. Tell her about women who flirt with you. Let her see other beautiful girls around you.

You see, women will never admit this but jealousy excites them. The thought of you turning on another woman will arouse her sexually.

Doing this will actually give physically unattractive men a HUGE romantic advantage over good-looking Men any day anytime.

16. Fuck Her Good

When you fuck are good you own her body and her love

Kiss her all over. Pay attention and caress all over her body (besides breast and pussy). Fuck her hard. Fuck her good like it's your last chance to. Hold her close after. Give her squirting orgasms. The sex guides that came with this book will teach you exactly how to.

Final Words

The hotter the woman the better this rules work. And the closer you follow these rules the easier you will find and keep real, true unconditional love and happiness in your life

And that's not all. Many of the rules would also make you a better, richer and more fulfilled man.

Re-read the rules. Study them. Take action on them. Enjoy them.

Peace!
